WOMEN TELL OF TERRORS OF COLORADO STRIKE WAR

New York, May 27.—Graphic word pictures of the terrors of the Colorado strike war were painted today for the United States commission on industrial relations by wives of two miners.

Mrs. Pearl Jolly, who was under fire for several days in the Ludlow tent colony, and Mrs. Mary Hanna Thomas, who helped remove the bodies of 11 women and children from the burned tents after the fighting, were allowed to tell their stories.

Mrs. Jolly denied charges that the miners were heavily armed. She said the men had only 40 rifles, the others having been confiscated and given to Baldwin-Felts detectives and the militia. She declared she had been many times fired upon while wearing a red cross nurse's uniform and was once hit.

Mrs. Thomas declared that militiamen ruined "dozens of young girls" during their stay at Ludlow.

BUSY

He'd eat his lunch in a minute;

He had no time to spare,

At a mounted fish in a window

He'd stop an hour to stare.
